Chapter 1 by Story Wars

How do you save the world? Do you? Or does your fricking English Teacher expects you to understand this:

If your canoe is stuck in a tree with the headlights on, how many pancakes does it take to get to the moon?

And says that is you find the answer that 'scientist have

I hated Ms. Watkins at this exact moment. "Uh, I seriously doubt this is in the new common core standards." I whispered. She went around the room asking the people in the class. Trevor Bell, "Um, 12?" Nope. Kathy Webster, "7." Wrong. Sherry Goodwin, "Trick question!" Er, no. Russel, Austin, Caleb, Jacqueline, Frankie, Jessie, Brady, all wrong. Then, me. The last person. Ms. Watkins took her gray, permed hair right over to my desk. "Well, Miss Walters? I'm waiting." Everyone else had guessed numbers. That's when I got a stupidly great idea. "Earth?" My boyfriend, Jack Diaz, mockingly yelled out, "Yes! Earth! That's it Holly!" Ms. Watkins hadn't moved. This worried me. I mumbled under my breath, "Or corn. Either way." Ms. Watkins mumbled something that I couldn't understand. "I'm sorry what?" I asked. "Miss Walters" Ms.
